“Imaging @Life”

~ Imaging Technologies to enrich life and society ~

= First Paper Call =

“Imaging Conference JAPAN 2016”, the 117th Annual Conference of the Imaging Society of Japan will be held with the following agenda.

The “Imaging Society of Japan” provides opportunities to discuss the leading-edge imaging science and technology including hardcopy, various marking technologies, and novel imaging technologies such as electronic paper and other electronic imaging system, as well as digital fabrication technologies to contribute to progress in all the related fields. This annual conference will provide opportunities to make active discussion and exchange of ideas concerning the latest investigations for members.

Imaging Society of Japan has established the conference concept as “Aiming to Create Fulfilling Scenes of Imaging”. Responding to the concept and the subtitle in the previous ICJ2014 “Capture, Process and Perception: Attractive Imaging Technologies,” ICJ2016 is subtitled “Imaging @Life: Imaging Technologies to enrich life and society.” We would like to evaluate how the imaging technologies have enlarged and satisfied our life and society, and how they have diversified the work style. And from the consideration we hope to obtain many realizations, suggestions and the targets to achieve in the future.

We appreciate your interest in submitting your abstract to the conference.
